They were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he felt sorry for them because they were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest.'

He summoned his twelve disciples - and gave them authority over unclean spirits with power to cast them out and to cure all kinds of diseases and sickness.

'Do not turn your steps to pagan territory, and do not enter any Samaritan town; go rather to the lost sheep of the House of Israel. And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils. You received without charge, give without charge'.

Hassop & Bakewell - News for the Pews

Allsop Family - We welcome today the Allsop Family who have joined us from near and far to dedicate Mass this Sunday morning to their Dad, Eric Allsop RIP. You are all once again most welcome to the community.

Location, Location, Location - We wish Cynthia Ryder and family a bright future as they move to Buxton. Cynthia has spent almost a lifetime attending All Saints, Hassop and will be very sadly missed. But she has promised to pop in every-so-often when she can. On behalf of the parish family I will organise to send her a bouquet of flowers. We wish them well and good health whilst opening boxes. If you would like Cynthia's new address then please request it from the Emmaus Hub.

Sick and Housebound - Thoughts and prayers for: Marie Hopkinson, Pat Erskine-Murray, Maria Hutchinson, Peter Peel, Annalise & Shirley Plant, Mary Howlings, Henry Coleman, Gerry Carlton and all our sick parishioners and friends.

Pope Francis often speaks of the church as a field hospital.

It is a very helpful image to think of our church as such. Pope Francis is thinking of the hospitals that are set up in the vicinity of a war zone where the wounded come to have their wounds tended to. It is a portrayal of the church that reflects the ministry of Jesus.

Jesus tended to the wounded, in body, mind and spirit. Our Gospel reading today highlights that dimension of Jesus' ministry: 'cure all kinds of diseases and sickness...cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils'. Jesus proclaims the presence of the kingdom of God by attending to other people's needs. He has compassion on the crowds who come to him and seem harassed and dejected like sheep without a shepherd. A response was needed. So Jesus sends out the twelve as labourers to a harvest, with authority to proclaim the closeness of God's kingdom by curing all kinds of diseases and sicknesses. Hereby Jesus proclaims the ministry of his disciples, the ministry of the church, is to be a continuation of Jesus' own healing ministry. Christian Art, London
