Newsletter

When Jesus, answering someone who had asked him 'will only a few people be saved', turned around the question, which focused more on quantity, on 'a few', and answered instead in terms of responsibility, inviting us to use the present time well. Indeed, as Jesus put it: "Strive to enter through the narrow door, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough" (v. 24).

"Jesus," Francis went on to say, "tells us things as they are: the passage is narrow. How so? To the extent that to be saved one must love God and one's neighbour, and this is not comfortable! It is a 'narrow gate' because it is demanding; love is always demanding; it requires commitment, indeed, an 'effort', that is a determined and persevering will to live according to the Gospel. Saint Paul says 'Compete well for the faith' (1 Tim 6:12). It takes an effort every day, all day long, to love God and others."

In explaining the parable, in which the master closes the gate and those left outside are turned away, Francis said: "These people then tried to be acknowledged, reminding the landlord that they ate and drunk with him and listened to his teachings in the streets (see v. 26). Still, the Lord again said that he did not know them, and called them 'evildoers'. That's the problem! The Lord will acknowledge us not for our titles, . . . titles do not count. The Lord will acknowledge us only for our humble and good life, a life of faith that is translated into works."

"For us Christians, this means that we are called to establish a true communion with Jesus, praying, going to church, approaching the Sacraments and nourishing ourselves with his Word. This keeps us in faith, nourishes our hope, revives charity. Thus, with the grace of God, we can and must spend our lives for the good of our fellow humans, fight against every form of evil and injustice.

"May the Virgin Mary help us in this. She went through the narrow gate that is Jesus. She welcomed him with all her heart and followed him every day of her life, even when she didn't understand, even when a sword pierced her soul. For this reason, we invoke her as 'Gate of Heaven', a gate that follows exactly the form of Jesus: the gate of the heart of God, a heart that is demanding, but open to all."

Angelus, Pope Francis, August 2019

Life's Journey - For each of us life is a journey. Birth is the beginning of this journey, and death is not the end, but a doorway to a new way of life to be with God. It is a journey that takes us from youth to age, from innocence to awareness, from foolishness to wisdom, from weakness to strength and often back again, from loneliness to friendship, from pain to compassion, from fear to faith, from defeat to victory and victory to defeat, until, looking backward or ahead, we see that victory does not lie at some high point along the way, but in having made the journey, stage by stage. (Hebrew Tradition)
