23rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Gospel this Sunday is from St. Luke 14:25-33 and teaches us that the essential condition for true discipleship, demanded by Christ, was, and still is, total dedication, total commitment of oneself to Him. There can be no such person as a half-Christian. "He that is not with me is against me," He said on another occasion. We cannot be for Christ on Sunday and against Him for the remainder of the week. To be His true disciples, His true followers, we must live our Christian life every day and all day.

Following Christ means making our way to heaven. It is a life-journey. We have a limited time in which to complete this journey. Therefore, we must travel a certain distance each day. This does not mean that we must spend every day in prayer and meditation. There are other tasks to be done, but we must Christianize these other tasks. Even the members of religious orders who "leave the world," that is, who are set free from the family and financial cares of this world by their vows of chastity and poverty, have to busy themselves with other cares like teaching, nursing, tilling the soil perhaps, housekeeping, writing and many such activities. They cannot and do not spend all their day and every day in prayer and meditation. Nor does Christ demand this of them.

Much less, therefore, does He demand this of the ninety-nine percent of His followers who have to take on themselves financial and family cares. It is by fulfilling these worldly duties in a Christian way that they are dedicating themselves to His service. This is their total commitment to Christ. The married man or woman who is loyal to his or her life-partner and to the family, if there is one, and who provides diligently and honestly for his own and the family's spiritual and temporal welfare, and who always does this with the intention of pleasing God, is following Christ and is moving steadily day by day towards heaven.

'Like the deer that yearns for running streams, so my soul is yearning for you, my God; my soul is thirsting for God, the living God.'
—communion antiphon

As the gifts are being brought to the altar by members of the faithful - they should be processed in such a way as to invite the whole assembly to place their own offering of themselves upon the table of sacrifice. Occasionally their offering may be enhanced by other gifts for the poor. Whatever is brought to the altar does not return to the giver, but is placed in a significant place—not on the altar, as are the bread and wine—then distributed after Mass.

Important Notice - Stables Parking - For existing Hassop parishioners and new parishioners - as you know we are very privileged to be able to use the stables for parking on Sunday mornings. May I remind you and our new parishioners, that when using this site we are guests, please park only along the far wall and please do not block any of the large green gates, as the owners need access 24/7, even on a Sunday mornings. We want to keep good relations with the owners and renters on this site. Also, two Saturdays this year the yard will not be available are 29th October and 19th November – it shouldn't affect us anyway.
