Today the Gospel reading begins this way: "At that time the apostles said to the Lord: "'Increase our faith!'" (Luke 17:5-6). I think that all of us can make this request our own. We, like the Apostles, also say to Jesus: "Increase our faith!" Yes, Lord, our faith is small, our faith is weak, fragile, but we offer it to you just as it is, so that you will make it grow. It seems to me that it would be good for all of us to repeat this together: "Lord, increase our faith!" Shall we do it?

Everyone: Lord, increase our faith! Lord, increase our faith! Lord, increase our faith! Make it grow!

And the Lord, how does he answer? He replies: "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree: 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you" (Luke 17:6). The mustard seed is very small, but Jesus says that it is enough to have a faith like this, small, but true, sincere to do things that are humanly impossible, unthinkable. And it is true! We all know people who are simple, humble, but with an incredibly strong faith, who truly move mountains!

In this month of October, which is especially dedicated to the missions, we think of many missionaries, men and women, who have overcome all sorts of obstacles to spread the Gospel. They have truly given their life; as St. Paul says to Timothy: "Do not be ashamed to bear witness to our Lord, nor to me, in prison for him; but with the power of God, suffer with me for the Gospel" (2 Timothy 1:8).

But this is meant for everyone: each one of us, in his everyday life, can bear witness to Christ, with the power of God, the power of faith, the small faith that we have, which, nevertheless, is strong! With this strength bear witness to Jesus Christ, be Christians with your life, with our witness!

Confession - please remember to follow the new joint bulletin for access to the Sacrament of Reconciliation at both Hassop and Matlock between 10:30am-11:30am (Alternate Saturdays).

King Charles III - Together with other faith leaders, Cardinal Vincent Nichols was invited to an audience with King Charles III last Friday, 16th September. The Cardinal wrote afterwards that: "In my personal conversation with the King, I assured him that the Catholic community had continued, during these days of mourning, in their heartfelt prayer for his mother. He expressed his gratitude for this. And then, turning back to me, he asked me to ensure that the Catholics of England and Wales knew of his thanks and gratitude for these prayers."

Autumn/Winter Choir Practice - As from October 4th, now the nights are drawing in, Choir Practice will be at 3.30p.m. on Tuesdays in Hassop. New members are always welcome to enquire about joining us. Many thanks, Christine

Mass Intentions - We have spaces in our diary for anyone who wishes to have a Mass offered for a loved one, living or deceased. Please find Mass Intention envelopes in the pew in front of

Welcome to our Visitors & Parishioners this weekend

Simple Supper - will begin once again after this Saturday Vigil. Soup and a roll, Tea and Chat and Biscuits. Fair Trade. All Welcome. It would be great to come together as Community

'HEATING IN THE HALL' - If you are interested in joining a working group to plan for the use of the Parish Hall as a social hub for use during the winter months as the cost-of-living crisis really bites, there will be an initial meeting on Tuesday 11th October at 7pm in the parish hall. The aim is to use the hall as a social hub for friendship, company, engagement, refreshment and warmth. Please consider getting involved. If you would like more information about this or the SVP, please contact Lance Philpott at lancep@svp.org.uk

Sick and Housebound - We remember in our prayers - Bob Hilton, Gordon Smythe, Lily Chapman, Imelda Hanlon, Helen Holland, Anna Thompson, Peggy Flynn, Kath Dyson, Bernie Brownbill, Linda Houghton and all our sick parishioners.

How Crafty Do You Think You Are? - A new venture for Mondays. 10am-12pm in the Church Hall starting from Monday 17th October. All welcome for coffee/tea/chat and craft. Bring your knitting, crochet or other crafty creations and have a chat at the same time. This is a lovely opportunity to start the week in a positive way, as the Hall is such a light and airy space to work in. Register any interest with Ann Hargreaves on 01629 582529.
