Pope Francis was inspired by the prayer of Moses in the battle against Amalek (Exodus 17.8 to 13), which allowed the victory of the Jewish people. To keep his arms raised in prayer, Moses was supported by Aaron and Hur. "This is an important message in this story of Moses: commitment to prayer demands that we support one another. Weariness is inevitable. Sometimes we simply cannot go on, yet, with the support of our brothers and sisters, our prayer can persevere until the Lord completes his work"

"The "battle" of perseverance cannot be won without prayer. Not sporadic or hesitant prayer, but prayer offered as Jesus tells us in the Gospel: "Pray always, without ever losing heart" (Lk 18:1). This is the Christian way of life: remaining steadfast in prayer, in order to remain steadfast in faith and testimony." "True, each of us grows weary. Yet we are not alone; we are part of a Body! We are members of the Body of Christ, the Church, whose arms are raised day and night to heaven, thanks to the presence of the Risen Christ and his Holy Spirit. Only in the Church, and thanks to the Church's prayer, are we able to remain steadfast in faith and witness".

"This is the mystery of prayer: to keep crying out, not to lose heart, and if we should grow tired, asking help to keep our hands raised. This is the prayer that Jesus has revealed to us and given us in the Holy Spirit. To pray is not to take refuge in an ideal world, nor to escape into a false, selfish sense of calm. On the contrary, to pray is to struggle, but also to let the Holy Spirit pray within us. For the Holy Spirit teaches us to pray. He guides us in prayer and he enables us to pray as sons and daughters".

Pope Francis, Vatican October 2016

God has not given up on you

'Being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.' Philippians 1:6.

Do you have problems with 'stick-ability' or completing a task that you started? How many of us have a load of "unfinished symphonies", whether they are craft works, maintenance jobs or a degree that we started but never finished. Not being able to see things through to completion seems to be something that so many of us are guilty of.

Aren't you glad that God is not like us?

He not only looks at us in our sin and need and sees a thing of incredible potential, but He is prepared to work with us for the rest of our lives, changing us, as we allow Him access, to become more and more like Him. He will present us to His Father as complete and Christlike, without fault and blameless.

God has begun a masterpiece in your life and He will bring it to completion too. You are a work in progress so don't give up. God hasn't given up on you.

How do you respond to the idea that you are God's handiwork, accomplishment, workmanship, or masterpiece? Do you ever think of yourself in this way? If you were to do so, what difference might it make in the way you live?

Hassop & Bakewell - News for the Pews

Welcome to our Visitors & Parishioners

You are welcome to come into the parish rooms for coffee after Mass.

Hassop Cafod - Thank you for your generosity towards those struggling across the world. Last week's collection from Family Fast Day came to: £32.20 so far.

Almighty Father you entrust to our care your gift of creation, our common home. Open our ears to hear the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor. God of justice, you show us how to live in gratitude and solidarity. Open our mouths to speak out, challenging greed and inequality, and standing up for all among us in desperate need of food. Holy Spirit, you share with us your vision of a world renewed. Open our hearts to compassion. As we hold before you the people of East Africa, we reach out in love. We make this prayer in the Name of Jesus, our Lord and Saviour

Sick and Housebound - We remember in our prayers - Marie Hopkinson, Pat Erskine-Murray, Maria Hutchinson, Peter Peel, Annalise, Shirley Hulmes & Shirley Plant, and all those in nursing homes, and all our sick parishioners, family and friends.

Laughter is a natural human response to the absurdities of human life. It also can build community as we share in the joy of laughter together. Moreover, laughter teaches us not to take ourselves so seriously, even when our mission to care for others is serious.
