“Render unto Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God,” was the response of Jesus when asked about paying taxes. His questioners, of course, were laying a trap for him. They wanted to force him to take sides in the highly charged political debate about Roman rule in the land of Israel. Yet there was more at stake here: if Jesus really was the long-awaited Messiah, then surely he would oppose the Roman overlords. So the question was calculated to expose him either as a threat to the regime, or as a fraud.

Jesus’ answer deftly moves the argument to a higher plane, gently cautioning against both the politicisation of religion and the deification of temporal power, along with the relentless pursuit of wealth. His audience needed to be reminded that the Messiah was not Caesar, and Caesar was not God. The kingdom that Jesus came to establish was of an altogether higher order. As he told Pontius Pilate: “My kingship is not of this world.”

Pope Benedict XVI, Vatican City, 2012

Turning Concern into Action

True faith in the incarnate
Son of God is inseparable
from self-giving,
from membership
in the community,
from service,
from reconciliation with others.

The Son of God,
by becoming flesh,
summoned us to the revolution of tenderness.

Revolution of Tenderness

Saturday 4 November 2023
St Mary's, Derby

We live in times when human dignity is being eroded. Families can't make ends meet. Our economy is undermining the common good. Refugees are turned away. We are handing to our children a ravaged Earth. We have lost the art of civil disagreement.

There is another way. Time and again, Jesus sought out the humanity in those he met. He revealed their dignity. He worked miracles of encounter and reconciliation. This is the Good News we are called to believe, live and share – this too is evangelisation.

For its 2023 Assembly, Caritas Diocese of Nottingham is joining forces with the Society of St Vincent de Paul. Revolution of Tenderness is an opportunity for everyone in the Diocese, its parishes and SVP conferences to discover Christ in those in need, deepen our discipleship and build a more just and peaceful world.
