“Behold
the Lamb
of God”

Let us imagine the scene. We are on the bank of the River Jordan. John is baptizing; there are many people, men and women of various ages, who have come there, to the river, to receive baptism from the hands of the man who reminded many of Elijah, the great Prophet who nine centuries before had purified the Israelites of idolatry and led them back to the true faith in the God of the Covenant, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

John preaches that the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand, that the Messiah is about to reveal himself, and one must prepare, convert and act with righteousness; and he begins to baptize in the River Jordan in order to give the people a tangible means of repentance (cf. Mt 3:1-6). These people came to repent their sins, to make penance, to begin their life anew. He knows; John knows that the Messiah, the Lord's Consecrated One, is now nearby, and the sign to recognize Him will be that the Holy Spirit will descend upon Him. Indeed, He will bring the true baptism, baptism in the Holy Spirit (cf. Jn 1:33).

And thus, the moment arrives: Jesus appears on the riverbank, in the midst of the people, the sinners — like all of us. It is his first public act, the first thing he does when he leaves his home in Nazareth, at the age of 30: he goes down into Judea, goes to the Jordan, and is baptized by John. We know what happens. We celebrated it last Sunday: the Holy Spirit descends upon Jesus in the form of a dove and the voice of the Father proclaims him the beloved Son (cf. Mt 3:16-17). It is the sign that John has been waiting for. It is He! Jesus is the Messiah. John is disconcerted, because He manifests himself in an unimaginable way: in the midst of sinners, baptized with them, or rather, for them. But the Spirit enlightens John and helps him understand that in this way God's justice is fulfilled, his plan of salvation is fulfilled: Jesus is the Messiah, the King of Israel, however, not with the power of this world but as the Lamb of God, who takes upon himself and takes away the sins of the world.

Thus, John points Him out to the people and to his disciples. Because John had a large circle of disciples, who had chosen him as a spiritual guide, and some of them actually become the first disciples of Jesus. We know their names well: Simon, later called Peter, his brother Andrew, James and his brother John. All were fishermen, all Galileans, like Jesus.

Hassop & Bakewell - News for the Pews

Mrs Mary Evelyn Charge (Eve) RIP - It is with great sadness we announce the passing of Eve, who died on the 3rd January. Eve's Requiem Mass will take place at All Saints, Church, Hassop on Thursday 2nd February at 11:00am, followed by burial at All Saints Cemetery. Fr Hugh Davoren and Eve's brother Fr Richard Taylor (Dixie) will celebrate the Mass and celebrate Eve's life. We shall keep all her family in our prayers at this sad time. Requiesce in pace.

Sick and Housebound - We remember in our thoughts and prayers: Marie Hopkinson, Pat Erskine-Murray, Maria Hutchinson, Peter Peel, Annalise & Shirley Plant and Mary Howlings and all our sick and housebound parishioners and friends.

First Holy Communion Classes 2023 - All Saints, Hassop
A First Holy Communion preparation course will be starting soon – forms are at the back of church. Registration will be accepted for children in Year 3 or above. There will be application forms to fill out at the back of church, it's timetable and home support explanation. We shall be asking the children to complete 90% Mass attendance - using the 'Footsteps' card. Please speak to Fr Robbie in the first instance and return the application by the end of January.

Sick and Retired Priests Fund - There will be a second collection next weekend, in aid of the Sick and Retired Priests Fund. Donations to this fund are to provide a sum for the priests of the Diocese who are currently in service so that an annual grant can be paid to them when they retire. They are also used to support these priests if they are sick and unable to work for any reason. These amounts are needed in addition to those collected by the Retired Priests Appeal, which were primarily for those who have already retired, and also in respect of past service for those currently working.

The Lamb by William Blake

Little Lamb who made thee, dost thou know who made thee
Gave thee life & bid thee feed. By the stream & o'er the mead;
Gave thee clothing of delight, softest clothing wooly bright;
Gave thee such a tender voice, making all the vales rejoice!
Little Lamb who made thee, dost thou know who made thee.

Little Lamb I'll tell thee, little Lamb I'll tell thee!
He is called by thy name, for he calls himself a Lamb:
He is meek & he is mild, He became a little child:
I a child & thou a lamb, we are called by his name.
Little Lamb God bless thee. Little Lamb God bless thee.
