Parish Deacon
Rev Richard Walsh

The Bishops of England & Wales teach that, by acts of penance, 'every Catholic identifies with Christ in his Death on the Cross. We do so in prayer, through uniting the sufferings and sacrifices in our lives with those of Christ's passion; in fasting, by dying to self to be close to Christ; in almsgiving, by demonstrating our solidarity with the sufferings of Christ in those in need. All three forms of penance are a vital part of Christian living.'

Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of the year other than Easter Friday and solemnities are days of penance, on which abstinence from meat is obligatory for those aged fourteen and over; fasting is also obligatory on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday for those between the ages of eighteen and fifty-nine. Fasting and abstinence are not limited to those two days and are recommended for those who are not bound to it; those who cannot fast or abstain for reasons of health are excused from so doing. The law of abstinence prohibits the use of meat; the law of fasting means we have only one full, meatless meal, but can take some food at two other regular mealtimes, if necessary, if they are less than a full meal. Liquids are allowed at any time, but no solid food should be consumed between meals. Alcohol and celebratory meals are not within the spirit of fasting and abstinence.

Ash is placed on the crown of our heads, where we were anointed with the Oil of Sacred Chrism when we were baptised, as Lent summons us to reflect on how we value all in the name of Jesus the Christ by exercising our baptismal mission of Prophet, Priest and King so that all may flourish. On Ash Wednesday, we will hear Jesus teach us in the Gospel, 'When you give alms,' 'when you pray' and 'when you fast' – not 'If' we do these three things. So, it's already time for us to think about what we're going to give up and take on for the Season of Lent, a God-given opportunity for us to reflect on our threefold relationship with others (almsgiving, reflecting the Kingly Mission), God (prayer, reflecting the Priestly Mission) and ourselves (fasting, reflecting the Prophetic Mission).

Sanctuary Lamp – Sick & Housebound

We say goodbye - to Ash (Ashdon Toombs) our friend and faithful cleaner. He has been a hard worker and a wonderful support to Fr Hugh for over ten years. On behalf of the parish, I gifted him a thank you. We wish him well as his existing job moves into full time.

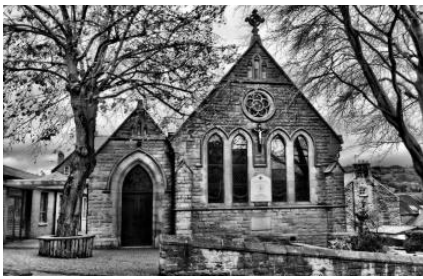

Our new cleaner and support - will be Dora, Barna our gardener’s wife. She previously cleaned for us before they had children, and I am happy to say she can start immediately. And as and when we have the flat occupied will also clean there each week too as a separate role.
