On this day we proclaim that he, the Lord of our life, is “the resurrection and the life” of the world. Today is Easter, the Pasch, a word that means “passage,” for in Jesus the decisive passage of humanity has been made: the passage from death to life, from sin to grace, from fear to confidence, from desolation to communion in him. In him, the Lord of time and history, I would like to say to everyone, with heartfelt joy, happy Easter to all!

Pope Francis’ urbi et orbi blessing for Easter 2023

We are to be Resurrection people - Easter, the feast of the Resurrection, gives us the joyful message that we are a "Resurrection people." This means that we are not supposed to lie buried in the tomb of our sins, evil habits, and dangerous addictions. It gives us the Good News that no tomb can hold us down anymore - not the tomb of despair, discouragement, doubt or death itself. Instead, we are expected to live a joyful and peaceful life, constantly experiencing the real presence of the Risen Lord in all the events of our lives. "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad" (Psalm 118:24).

"In the light of the Risen Lord, our sufferings are now transfigured. Where there was death, now there is life. Where there was mourning, now there is consolation. In embracing the cross, Jesus bestowed meaning on our sufferings and now we pray that the benefits of that healing will spread throughout the world. A good, happy and serene Easter to all of you!"
Pope Francis, Easter, 2021

Hassop & Bakewell - News for the Pews

Sick and Housebound - Thoughts and prayers for: Marie Hopkinson; Maria Hutchinson; Peter Peel; Annalise & Shirley Plant; Mary Howlings; Henry Coleman; Gerry Carlton, Gitte Turnbull and all our sick.

‘But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices they had prepared. And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel. And as they were frightened and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, “Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, he has risen.’

‘But when they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had been rolled away. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed. ‘Don’t be alarmed,’ he said. ‘You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid him.’

Mark 16: 4 – 6

Planned Giving Envelopes - This weekend the Planned Giving Boxes for 2024/2025 are ready for collection from the back of church. Due to trying to save on costs, only those who have used their envelopes in the past year, will have been allocated a new set. If anyone is interested in signing up for Gift Aid, or Standing Order, please speak to Fr Robbie after Mass, or contact the Emmaus Hub during the week.

Thank you - May I take this opportunity to thank all for all your hard work and assistance in ensuring that the Holy Week and Easter Ceremonies are carried out with due dignity and prayerful solemnity and also to our wonderful Choir, Robin our Organist, Flower Team, Coffee Teams, Ministers, Readers, Servers and Cleaners - I am very grateful. Likewise, I take this opportunity to thank you for kind and generous Easter Offerings and Easter Gifts - similarly, they are very much appreciated.

Fr Robbie

Easter Greetings from the Emmaus Hub - Fr Robbie, Deacon Richard and Lucinda extend every good wish for Easter to all who worship in our two churches, to their families and to all visitors who will be with us during this weekend.

Good Friday Holy Places Collection - Thank you to you all for supporting those living the Christian faith in the Holy Land and the wider Middle East. Keeping hope alive in such circumstances is both difficult and vitally important in support the Holy Father’s mission.

"Jesus died that you might live forever. Do you know anyone you would be willing to die for? Do you know anyone at all that you would be willing to give your blood for? That's a lot of love. All He's asking in return is repentance for your sins and acknowledgment of your faults. That's a pretty good deal." - Mother Angelica

Transform Trade Event - Many thanks to all those who attended the Transform Trade event last Saturday. To those who baked, bought, served and ate cakes; those who made such generous financial donations; the Marshall family and young volunteers who ran the quiz, served and washed up; and those who served drinks, swept floors and tidied the hall a MASSIVE THANK YOU! You raised £497.35, with Fr Stephen's parishioners at St Helen's, Darley Dale who matched our amount. A fantastic effort which will probably mean this small area of Derbyshire has supported the development of 3 community-owned shops in rural Bagladesh! Way beyond our expectations.

If you're interested in knowing more about the work of Transform Trade, there are some small cards at the back of church with their website details. Please help yourself and spread the word.

The Emmaus Hub will be closed between Monday 1st April - Wednesday 10th April and will reopen on Thursday 11th April. Please leave a message and Lucinda or Fr Robbie will endeavour to get back to you swiftly. For emergencies only please call Fr Robbie on 07449835765

"Are you the King of the Jews?" Pilate asked.

Jesus replied "Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others spoken to you about me?"

Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me what have you done?"

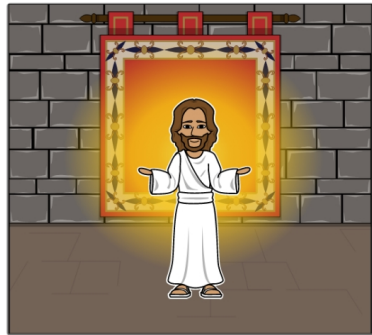

Jesus replied, "Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent me being handed over to the Jews. But my kingdom is not of this kind."

"So you are a king then?" said Pilate. "It is you who say it" answered Jesus. "Yes I am a king"

"I was born for this, I came into the world for this; to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice."

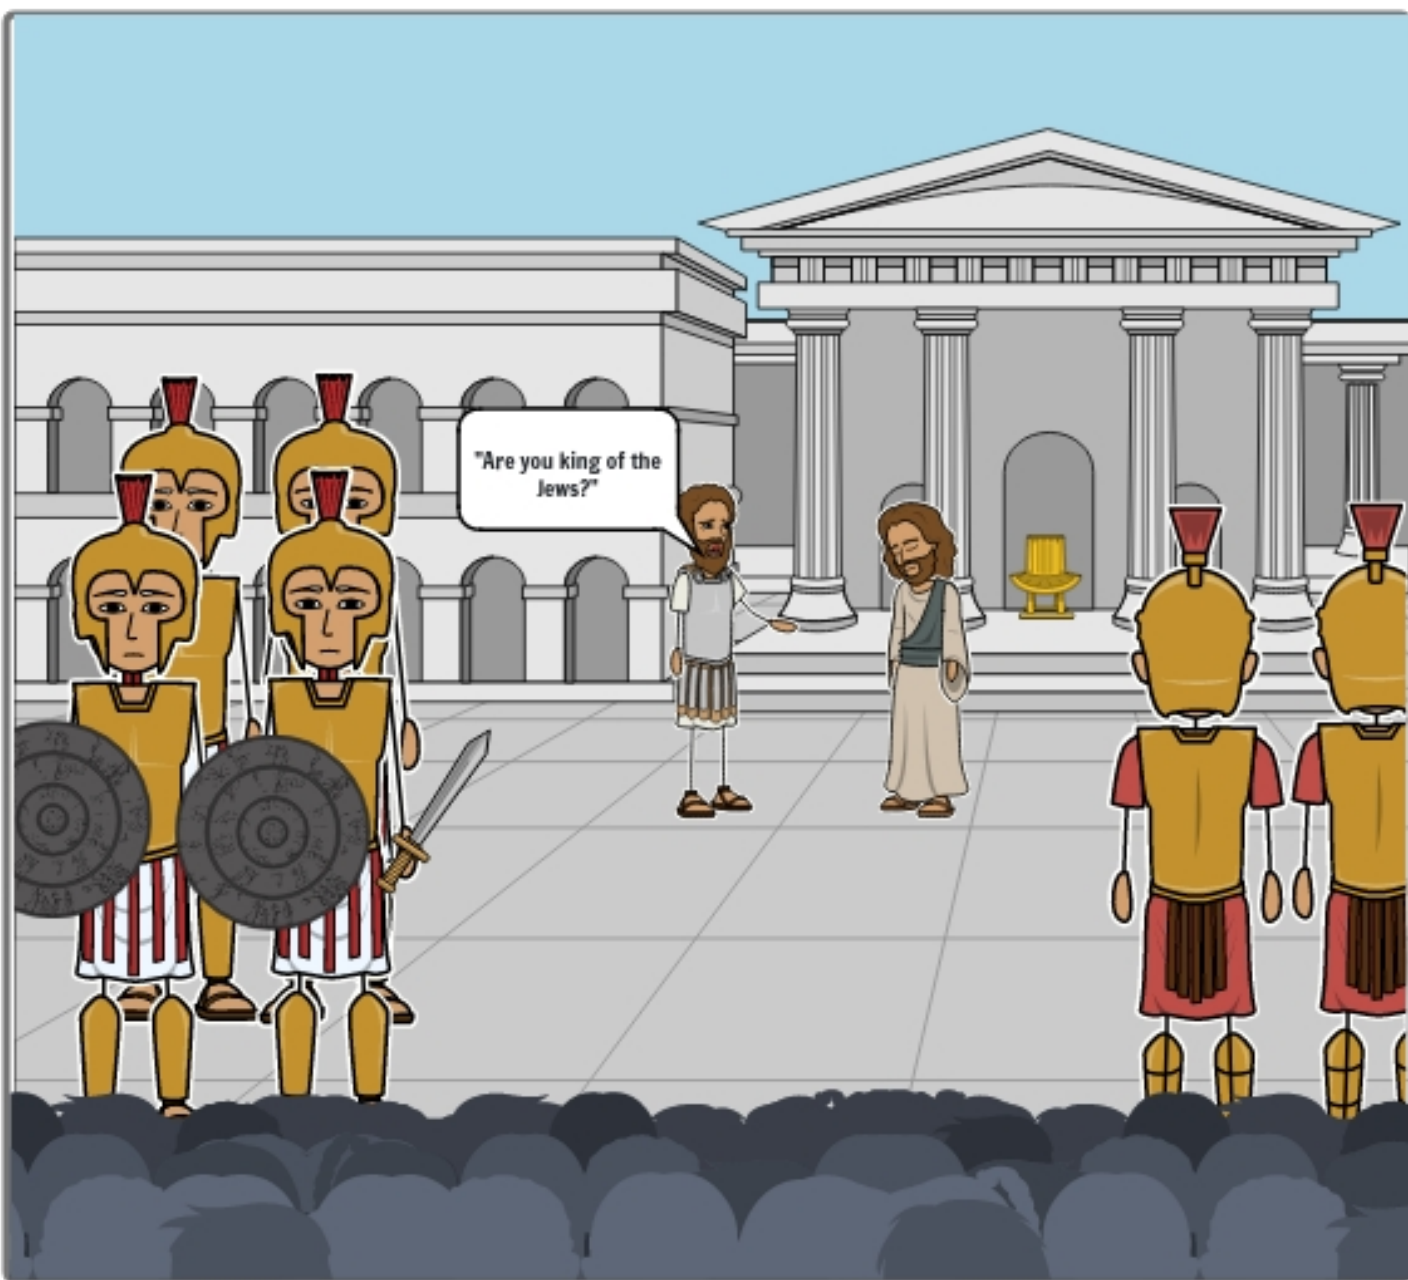

"I was born for this!"

"Now seated at the righthand of the Father."

"Fully present to you all at holy Mass."
