Joyful acclamations at Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem, followed by his humiliation. Festive cries followed by brutal torture. This twofold mystery accompanies our entrance into Holy Week each year, as reflected in the two characteristic moments of today's celebration: the initial procession with palm branches and the solemn reading of the Passion.

Let us enter into this movement, guided by the Holy Spirit, and thus obtain the grace we sought in our opening prayer: to follow in faith our Saviour's example of humility, to heed his lesson of patient suffering, and thus to merit a share in his victory over the spirit of evil.

Jesus shows us how to face moments of difficulty and the most insidious of temptations by preserving in our hearts a peace that is neither detachment nor superhuman impassivity, but confident abandonment to the Father and to his saving will, which bestows life and mercy. He shows us this kind of abandonment by spurning, at every point in his earthly ministry, the temptation to do things his way and not in complete obedience to the Father. From the experience of his forty days in the desert to the culmination of his Passion, Jesus rejects this temptation by his obedient trust in the Father.

Today, too, by his entrance into Jerusalem, he shows us the way. For in that event, the evil one, the prince of this world, had a card up his sleeve: the card of triumphalism. Yet the Lord responded by holding fast to his own way, the way of humility.

The Easter Triduum - This week, we celebrate the three most important days in our year: Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil on Saturday night. They take us through the last hours of Jesus’ life and we are asked to sit with him at the Last Supper, walk with him along the road to Calvary, grieve at the empty tomb but rejoice as he comes among us risen from the dead. All three services are very different to our usual Sunday celebrations so come along to all three if you can ..... let’s come together as a parish family to experience the mystery of Jesus’ passion and resurrection.

Peter’s Pence Good Friday - Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Peter’s Pence Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. The Peter’s Pence Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines. The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees. Please be generous on Good Friday.

Confession Tuesday

When was the last time you went to Confession? Some of you might have ventured to confession sometime this year. Thinking back, maybe the last time you approached the Sacrament of Penance was ... last month, last year, two years or ten years ago?

Now is a GOOD TIME to approach the Lord through the Sacrament of Penance.

Every time God offers an extraordinary gift of grace.

Now really is a good time for the Sacrament of Penance, no matter how long it has been. There is no better part of a priest's life and ministry than to walk with others in the sacrament.
