A week later his disciples were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. Though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe."

Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!"

Believing in Risen Life - After his death and burial, the apostles saw the risen Jesus. They talked with him. They touched him. They ate with him. These things are not done with the dead. They knew he was alive. We believe this still today because we experience his presence in many ways. Didn't Jesus tell us not to worry and to not be afraid? Either we believe in the message of Easter, or we don't! The resurrection of Christ is really all about receiving the gifts of trust and faith and doing new things. Find a way to trust that this is true and live. How do I see the risen Lord's activity still happening today? How can I foster belief in the risen Lord by what I say and do? How does this belief change my life, my attitudes, my priorities?

Having encountered the Risen Lord, like the disciples, we cannot keep the joy of the Good News, the New Life in Christ to ourselves. We must go out to proclaim that Jesus is the One who gives us life.

To those who baked, bought, served and ate cakes; those who made such generous financial donations You raised £497.35, with Fr Stephen's parishioners at St Helen's, Darley Dale who matched our amount. The Last Supper with Jesus

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples asked Jesus: "Where would you like us to plan for you to eat the Passover feast?"

The Holy Mass in Church

Fr Robbie stands there as the 'Person of Christ' and invites all to the House of God and the Altar of Sacrifice. Our holy Mass is celebrated as a memorial of the Last Supper Jesus had with His disciples. He is Present in Holy Communion

Jesus blesses the Bread

He thanked God for the bread and shared it with the disciples and said, "Take this and eat it. This is my body which is given for you".

Jesus' words of Consecration over the Bread

Fr Robbie says the words Jesus said at the Last Supper and calls upon the Holy Spirit to come down upon the Bread which will become Jesus' Body.

Jesus blesses the Wine

Then He took a cup of wine, thanked God for it and said, "This is my blood, which will be poured out for many so their sins may be forgiven."

Jesus' words of Consecration over the Wine

Fr Robbie once again says the words Jesus said at the Last Supper and calls upon the Holy Spirit to come down upon the Wine which will become Jesus' Blood.

ENCOUNTER

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

DISCIPLESHIP

St Paul in response to a call of the Holy Spirit, the church in Antioch chose Barnabas and Paul to proclaim the gospel. They first traveled to Cyprus, then to Antioch in Pisidia, a city in present day west central Turkey.

MISSIONARY DISCIPLESHIP

"By virtue of Baptism we become 'missionary disciples', called to bring the Gospel to the world (cf. Apostolic Exhortation 'Evangelii Gaudium', n. 120). All the baptized, whatever their position in the Church or their level of instruction in the faith, are agents of evangelization. ..."
