Before Jesus accompanied them on their journey, their spirits had grown old. The two disciples were disappointed and disillusioned after Jesus was crucified. They were downcast, the Gospel tells us. They told Jesus, whom they did not recognize, “we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel.” Notice the past tense, “they were hoping.” So they had lost that hope. They had been Jesus’ disciples and had believed He was a powerful prophet, but with His crucifixion, they thought His mission had failed. They were experiencing a crisis of faith and a loss of hope. That’s why they left Jerusalem. Why stay? The One they had put their hope in was dead. They had lost their youthfulness of spirit. We can say they were dispirited. But this man who joined them on the road, whom they did not recognize, changed that.

The Risen Jesus explained the Scriptures to them, including the prophets, passages that spoke about how the Messiah would suffer and then enter into His glory. Their spirits were touched by the interpretation of the Scriptures that Jesus was providing them. They were so touched that they urged Jesus to stay with them that evening. As they would say to each other later: “Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?” Their eyes were being opened to the truth about Jesus and what happened on Calvary. Their faith and hope was being renewed. And, of course, the climax of that wonderful encounter with Jesus came when, at table that evening, Jesus “took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them.” Then their eyes were truly opened and they recognized Him.

God Save The King!

Hassop & Bakewell - News for the Pews

Sick and Housebound - We remember in our thoughts and prayers: Marie Hopkinson, Pat Erskine-Murray, Maria Hutchinson, Peter Peel, Annalise & Shirley Plant, Mary Howlings, Henry Coleman, Gerry Carlton and all our sick parishioners and friends.

What is a parish? - A moment to light a candle to Our Lady or the Sacred Heart of Jesus for those who are close or who have died. A place to refresh our faith or to have a little solitude in a busy world. A place where we share so much with others, a faith that defines us as who we are. You think, why did I wait so long to come in, to return? The Risen Christ welcome's you home.

Hassop & Matlock Parish Finances

Dear Parishioners, as you are aware we have come to the end of this financial year 2022/23. This past year has seen both parishes take onboard a new finance package via our head office called OPAS. Both Lucinda and Sarah received training to administer this package in March/April 2022 and its setting up from a support team.

This setting up and transfer has been a very slow process – sometimes headache inducing! As Sarah moved onto pastures new in August, Lucinda since then has been working on Matlock and Hassop's OPAS systems to reach the point of it being healthy and coherent and through her hard work it has allowed us to be where we should be at the end of this complicated financial year. This means that I shall be able to meet, finally, with both sets of Finance Committees in the next few weeks. I am full of gratitude to Lucinda who had not one but two parishes to align into the new software. Thanks to her, we shall be able to report on the accounts and move into having both sets of accounts audited as usual.

This coming year will be more straight forward as now Lucinda has a clear system for both parishes and is used to each parish requirements etc. I know you will be interested in knowing how your monies are doing. I can say that even through these hard financial times for all of us, and also through the Hassop renovations in the flat, we still find both parishes in a healthy positive state thanks to your support and generosity. I look forward to updating you all in May. Blessings Fr Robbie

Clergy Formation Fund

Ongoing Formation and Support for Clergy

There will be a second collection for the CFF next Sunday.

Thank you - to the Caldicot Family of Matlock who in their process of moving and down-sizing donated the beautiful large dining table and eight chairs to the parish in our meeting rooms. This means that we have more seating and can be more hospitable to visitors and parishioners alike. We pray that their move will go well, and we give thanks that they thought about us in such a generous way – we are truly blessed.

Almighty, ever-living God. You offer the covenant of reconciliation to humanity in the mystery of Easter. Grant that what we celebrate in worship we may carry out in our lives. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen

Sick and Housebound - We prayer for - Bob Hilton, Lily Chapman, Imelda Hanlon, Ann Holland, Anna Thompson, Peggy Flynn, Kath Dyson, Linda Houghton, Greta Carne and all our sick parishioners.

Final Traidcraft Sale - As it has not been possible to find a suitable supplier to replace Traidcraft which went into administration in January, regular Fairtrade stalls have become impossible, but I still have a certain amount of stock which needs to go: quite a lot of chocolate, some teas, greetings cards and gift items which were not normally on display. I hope to put these out on the weekend of 22/23 April, some at reduced prices. The money will go to TRANSFORM TRADE, formerly the Traidcraft Exchange, which is still trying to help the producers impacted by Traidcraft's demise to find new outlets and to continue to work for justice in trade. Thank you. Ingrid.
