Friends, in today's Gospel, the risen Jesus appears to his eleven disciples. He does not appear as a Platonic soul, a ghost, or a hallucination. Instead, he can be touched and seen, has flesh and bones, and can consume baked fish. Against all their expectations, a dead man had returned, through the power of God, bodily and objectively, from death.

Even while insisting on this bodiliness and objectivity, we must not go to the opposite extreme. It really was Jesus, the crucified, who had returned from the dead. But he did not come back simply resuscitated to the confines of ordinary space and time. He was not, in a word, like Lazarus, the daughter of Jairus, or the son of the widow of Naim, all people who had been raised only to die again.

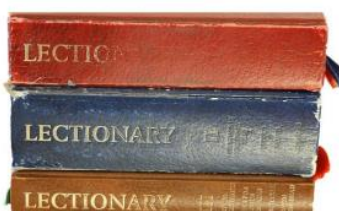

Instead, Jesus' body is transformed and transfigured, independent of the strictures of space and time; it is, in Paul's language, a "spiritual" body. And the point is this: he has triumphed over death and all that pertains to death. His resurrected body is a foretaste and promise of what God intends for all of us.

New Lectionary for England & Wales

Very soon Matlock & Hassop will be able to start ordering the New Lectionary translation to be launched next Advent. Each Parish will require a Lectern copy (large) of Lectionary I, II and III and also a study version I, II and III. Costs haven't been released yet, but if you wish to dedicate by purchasing one of the books in memory of a loved one, then please contact Fr Robbie in the first instance. He would guess that the large books will be £350 and the smaller £100, but shall confirm.

Finding Meaning Beyond Easter Day - The resurrection story can be told throughout the year, for it is always imbued with a deeper meaning. This story forms the essence of our faith; we know that, in Christ, death can be defeated and give way to everlasting life. By remembering this throughout the year, we can find relief from the burden of sin as well as greater joy in the blessings of everyday life. Christ's resurrection gives us a reason to live not only for today, but to sustain hope in our future, no matter how difficult the circumstances we currently face.

From Easter to Pentecost - our readings focus on the early apostolic preaching of the Good News of salvation and on the promises of Jesus to his disciples, especially his promise of the Holy Spirit.

Risen Christ, come into our lives. May the light of your resurrection set us free, transform our hearts and bring us into new life. who lives and reigns with the Father and the Spirit. Amen

Welcome home to Our Lady & St Joseph Community! If you are visiting for the first time, or have been with us before, we welcome you as we pray together during this Easter Season. Thank you for joining us as we praise God and celebrate the Risen Christ!

In all of Eastertide, the Regina Caeli replaces the Angelus, beginning on Easter Sunday. In it, the faithful pray: “For the Lord has truly risen, Alleluia.”

Eastertide - For most people, Easter is only one weekend in the year that begins with Good Friday and ends with Resurrection Sunday; or for more secular people, it is a long weekend to enjoy to the fullest - since many countries Good Friday and Easter Monday are public holidays. Unfortunately, what many do not understand (even some Catholics) is that Easter is not just one day or one weekend, it is a whole season. In fact, Eastertide lasts a full 50 days, from Resurrection Sunday till the Pentecost.

The Holy Spirit actually lives in us - and we hear the voice of the Spirit, counselling and guiding us in the way of truth. Let us open our minds and hearts to hear Him and to obey His promptings.

Fr. Antony Kadavil
